Kostia Violin Show

An extraordinary experience where the audience can hear their favorite hits like they never have before. Kostia is a high caliber and charismatic musician, winner of prestigious international competitions, and an exciting band leader. What makes him unique is the combination of classical music skills and professionalism with an innovative contemporary vision, revolutionizing the approach to his instrument and musical showmanship.

This exclusive event will shatter all your stereotypes and preconceived notions about the violin and won't leave anyone unaffected. Get ready to feel the energy, vibe, and be a part of a musical revolution!

Joel DaSilva Band

American/Brazilian/Ukrainian guitarist, singer and songwriter hailing from Chicago, Illinois, and currently based in Florida. His sound is influenced by Memphis, Chicago, the Florida Swamp, the Soul and the City. They all melt together in a tasty gumbo that is Joel DaSilva. He tours the states and overseas often and is the son of traveling musicians from Brazil. DaSilva lost his father at age 3, which had a profound impact on the young artist's life. He has 5 independent original albums thus far in a career spanning over several years.

Joanna Holstein

Joanna Holstein is a Swedish singersongwriter and keyboardist fusing pop, soul, and jazz. Often described as a mixture between Lady Gaga and Norah Jones, Joanna is spreading love and good vibes with her voice and keys throughout live shows weekly in South Florida. Her ability to mix acoustic/lounge music with uptempo and dance makes her music a great fit for any crowd.
