

1. Original post 1 Dated 31 Dec 7:38pm on Page 4 (#59)

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying <https://fiddlerman.com/forum/party-room/new-party-simple-gifts/page-4/#p122183>. The browser's menu bar includes File, Edit, View, History, Bookmarks, Tools, and Help. The page title is "Fiddle talk - VIOLIN DISCUSSION".

The forum page has a navigation bar with links to Home, FORUM, Party Room, and New Party - Simple Gifts. It indicates "11 topics with unread posts". The page number is 4 out of 4, with links to pages 1, 2, 3, and 4. There are buttons for "Add Topic" and "Add Reply".

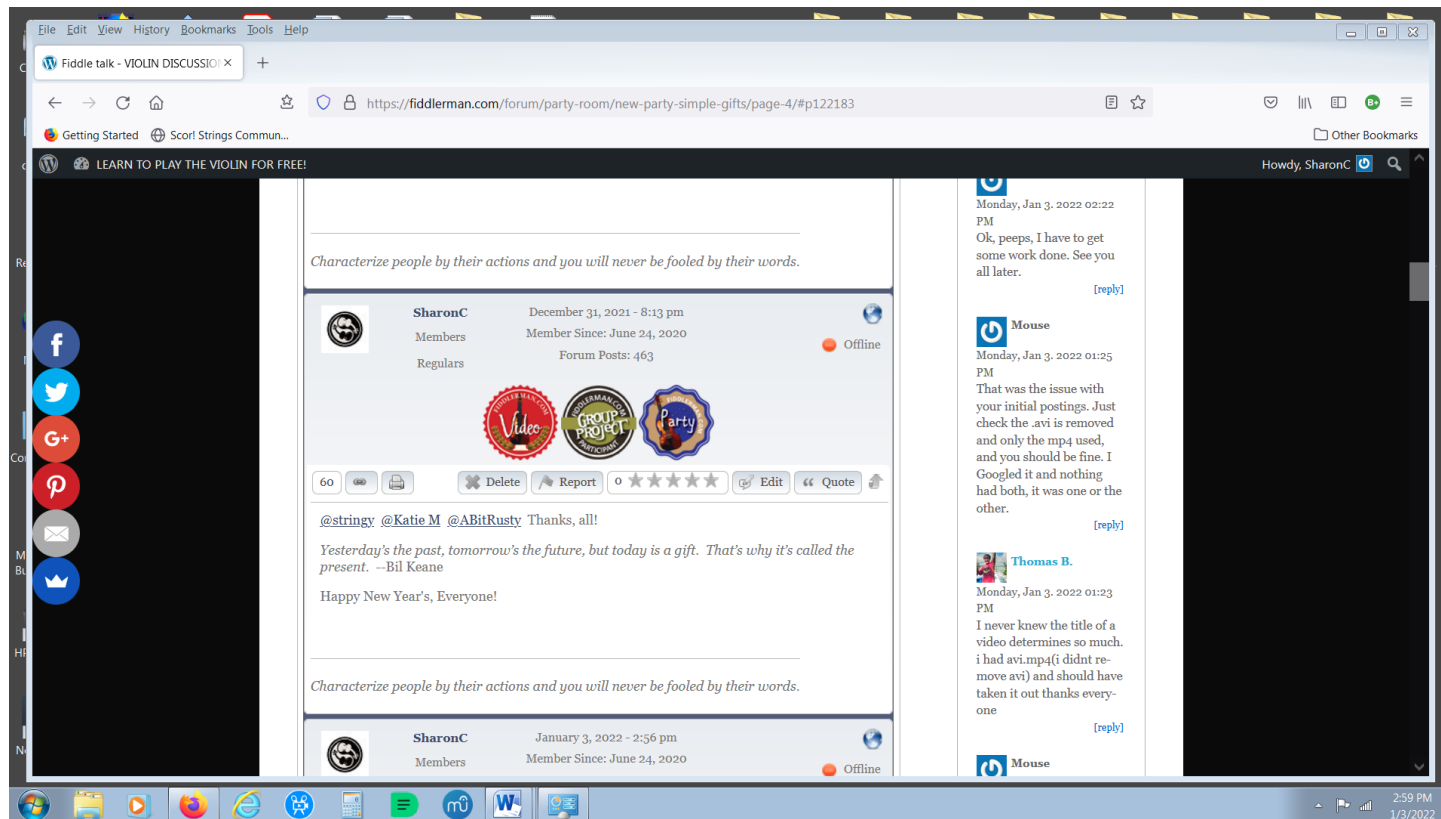

The main post is titled "New Party - Simple Gifts" with the subtitle "The Shaker Hymn, Simple Gifts is a great tune!". It has a "Topic Rating: 5 (20 votes)" and a "Topic RSS" link. The post is by user "SharonC", a member since June 24, 2020, with 463 forum posts. The user is currently offline. There are three profile icons: "Video", "GROUP PROJECT", and "Party".

The post content includes a reply from "@stringy @Katie M @ABitRusty" saying "Thanks, all!". Below this is a quote: "Yesterday's the past, tomorrow's the future, but today is a gift. That's why it's called the present. --Bil Keane". The post ends with "Happy New Year's, Everyone!".

On the right side of the page, there is a "Schreikasten" (Message Box) with a text input field labeled "Your message.." and a "Submit" button. Below this is a login section for "Thomas B." with the text "Monday, Jan 3, 2022 02:48 PM".

2. Second Post from Dec 31, posted 8:13pm (#60)

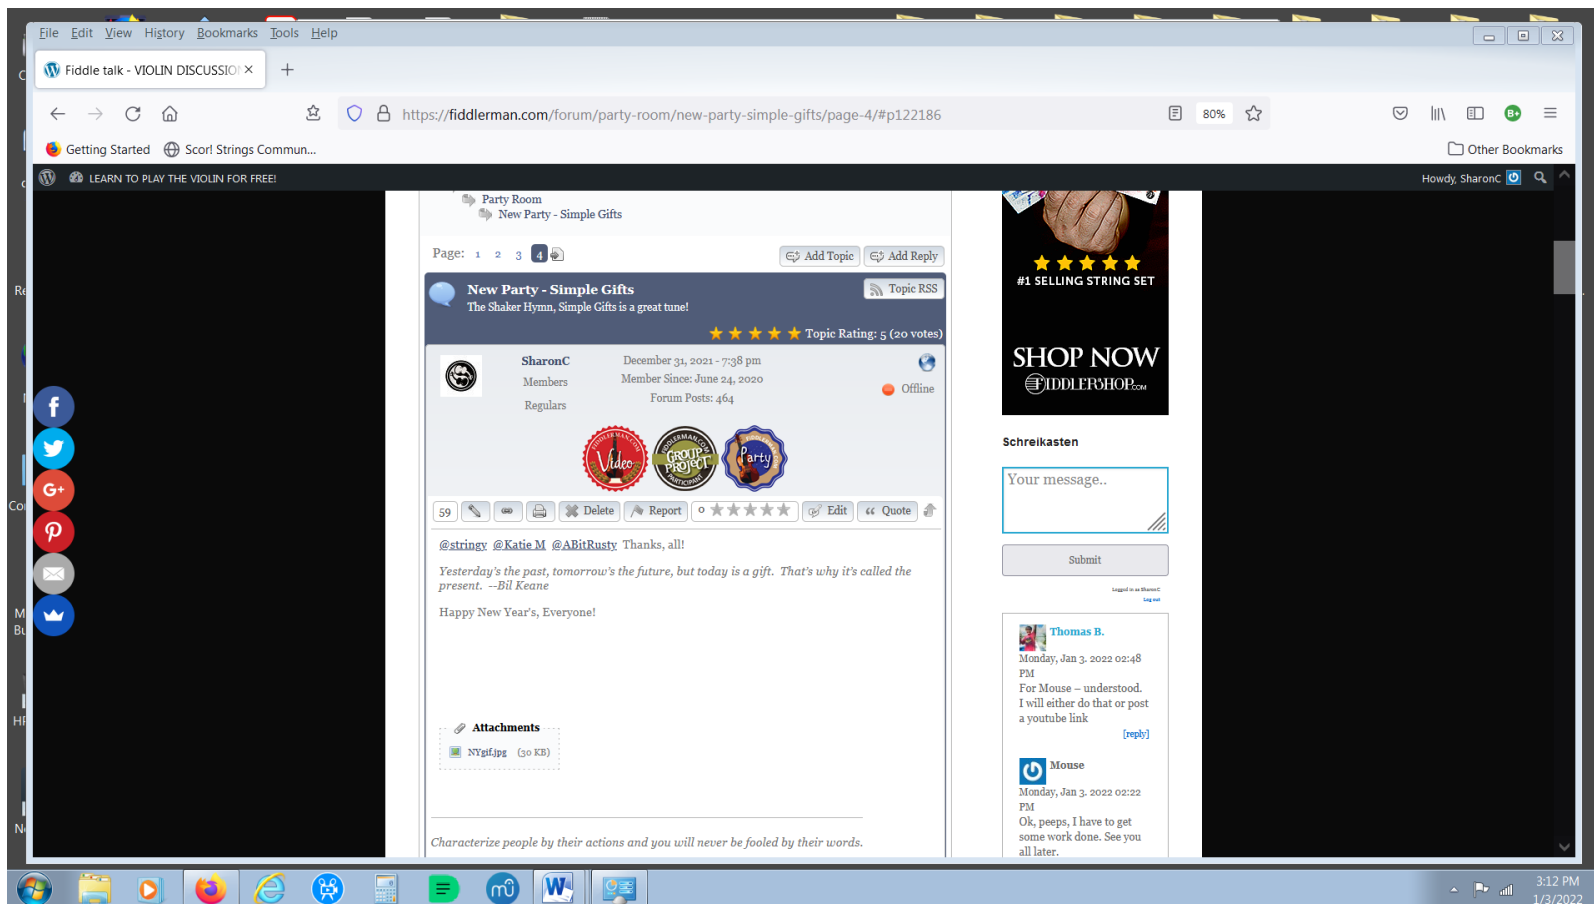

3. Today (3 Jan) I deleted the 3rd post (#61) from Dec 31. When I did this, the previous 2 posts (#59 & #60) disappeared, and only 3 pages were listed with the thread.

Additionally, when navigated to Main Forum Page after deleting this 3rd post – I get another “Post Deleted” message

4. I posted a test message (the new #61) a few times. Each time, the test message showed on page 4 (as #61), along with the original messages #59 & #60 (from Dec 31—they reappeared).

That was the issue with your initial postings. Just check the .avi is removed and only the mp4 used, and you should be fine. I Googled it and nothing had both, it was one or the other. [\[reply\]](#)
